ABOUT ME

I'm Dmytro, and I love creating user-friendly apps that make a difference. I'm always improving my skills and staying updated with the latest technologies. I believe technology can transform our world, and I'm excited to create something new.

WORK EXPERIENCE

01/09/2021 – CURRENT Corridonia, Italy
ANDROID DEVELOPER APpload

As an Android developer at Appload, my primary responsibility is to develop and maintain Android applications using REST services. I have a strong understanding of the MVVM architectural pattern, which I use to design and implement the structure of the application. Also I have responsibility of managing a small team of developers. As a team leader, I am responsible for assigning tasks, overseeing the development process, and ensuring that my team is meeting project deadlines.

01/06/2021 – 01/09/2021 Corridonia
ANDROID DEVELOPER INTERN APpload

As an Android developer intern at Appload, I gained hands-on experience working on various Android applications. During my internship, I learned to develop and maintain Android applications using REST services and implement the MVVM architectural pattern.
